USD Men Third, Women's Sixth At Jackrabbit Inv.; Lervick Wins Title

IOUX FALLS — The University of South Dakota men tied for third and the Coyote women, led by medalist Brenna Lervick, placed sixth at the Jackrabbit Fall Invitational golf tournament, held Monday and Tuesday Minnehaha Country Club in Sioux Falls.

SDSU won both team titles.

Lervick is the first Coyote golfer to win an invitational since Amber Luitjens took the Cobber Invitational in September 2007. She made a 12-foot birdie putt on the final hole of the 54-hole event to force a play, then beat North Dakota State's Sarah Storandt on the first playoff hole for the title.

USD junior Janice Baumberger shot the Coyote women's low round of the day Tuesday at 7over-par and finished the tournament in 20th place at +33. Sophomore Alyna Vaughan matched Lervick's opening round 77 (+6) and finished in 15th place at +30.

Yankton native Megan Mingo led the SDSU

The Jackrabbits (3-1) have lost their last four games against NDSU, including twice last year, once in the FCS playoffs. Dating back to both team's ascension to the Division I ranks, the Bison hold a 6-4 edge.

As for the current meeting, some have questioned why such a meaningful game was slated as the league opener, but Stiegelmeier said the timing actually helps his team. "For us, it's great medicine right now, to be honest, because we got our tails whipped at Nebraska," he said. "We can't dwell on that with the number one team in America coming to town."
