If you have driven past the Mead Building recently you should have noticed the progress on the exterior of the windows. The crew working with Chalkstone Woodworking has been making great progress. Just a reminder, that during this phase we ask that you stay outside the fence around Mead. We are so appreciative of the support we have received and hope to see this support continue for years to come. If you ever have questions about the Mead Project or the museum, please stop by and see us at the Dakota Territorial Museum, 610 Summit Street (in Westside Park) or like us on Facebook. On Oct. 1, our hours will change — we will be open noon-4 p.m. seven days a week. Tickets are on sale now for the 2013 Historic Revelry, set for 2-5 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 6.
