The first set the Gazelles started strong scoring the first point and putting up a commanding lead.

Both teams battled it out in the second set. Huron started with a four-point lead led by Zell who had three kills in the set. In the middle of the set the teams were neck and neck as Yankton edged out the win with two Huron errors 25-23.

"I never really felt all night that we were really playing with a lot of energy," Yankton coach Tiffany Beste said. "I Felt like we were pretty flat all the sets. I think Huron took two strength," Hagen said. "However, we are expecting the kids to play hard, sound football.

Yankton will be focusing on the Raiders formation, according to Likness.

"We are keying on their formation," he said. "When they are healthy, they can run and pass. We need to take that away, give them three downs, and get the ball back. If our offense can produce, we will be in pretty good shape.<sup>3</sup>

Hagen said it has been a difficult week of preparation for Stevens. He noted on Yankton's seniors and the play-making ability they present.

"They have a great group of seniors, and some very talented weapons," Hagen said. "They're going to cause match-up problems all night. We have to be very sound on defense with our adjustments. The Raiders have been preparing for all of the Buck's offensive attacks. "It's very tough to prep for #### not like we can run kids in and out of the field. We have been and will have to work hard on the defensive side of the ball.

Yankton has been working on the offensive line play, something the coaching staff noticed in their 30-2 victory over Mitchell last week, that needed to be fixed.

'We really saw we needed to pick up the play on the offensive line," Likness said. "That's something in practice we have been working on all week.'

The Bucks will also look to switch things up a bit, and look to run the ball in the trenches.

'We need to get some steady drives going," Likness said. "We are going to change our formation a little bit, so we can run down hill. We need to let Mason (Strahl) read the defense and take the reads he gets.'

Hagen feels if they can maintain the Buck personnel, they have a good shot at earning their first victory of the season.

"If we can neutralize their personnel, it will be a huge key," he said. "Every game, no matter the level, comes down to controlling the line of scrimmage."

Yankton set a goal of showing improvement from last week's contest.

We want to have no turnovers," Likness said. "But, this week, our biggest goal is to show improvement. If we can do that, the winning and losing will take care of itself."

Yankton and Rapid City Stevens will kick-off at 7 p.m. at Crane Youngworth Field.

We need to hang onto the ball and win the field position battle," Likness said. "We can't give either of those to a good passing team. We need to step up, get our offense on the field, and keep the defense on the sidelines."

The third goal was understandably a relief for the Gazelles, according to Rust.

"That made us more pumped, took off a lot of the pressure," she said. "Instead of pushing for one, we just had to hold them off.'

In all, the Gazelles had 11 shots. with assists coming from Kendall Lillie and Sophie Bisgard. Goalkeeper Haley Schild made nine saves.
