SPORTS DIGEST

Women's Soccer: USD Falls At Northern Arizona

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. — The South Dakota women's soccer team tied up the game late in the second half, but Northern Arizona scored once more to record a 3-2 win over the Coyotes on Sunday at the Lumberjack Stadium in Flagstaff.

The Coyotes (4-2-0) fell behind in the first half when Northern Arizona's Emily Wadell scored from outside the box in the 32nd minute.

Less than a minute after halftime, Shannon Keller scored a header off a free kick for the Coyotes to tie the game. Two more goals were scored within the next five ninutes, one for each team. The Lumberjacks' Adrian Nixt dribbled the ball right into the goal box to score off a pass from teammate Demi Schmeider. South Dakota responded a minute later when Corey Strang scored unassisted on a shot from 10-yards out

The game remained tied at 2-2 until the 85th minute when Haley Wingender of Northern Arizona (1-3-1) scored off a free kick outside the box to retake the lead for the Lumberiacks.

The Coyotes return home next weekend to play yoming on Friday at 4 p.m. in Vermillion. USD 3, GRAND CANYON 1: PHOENIX, Ariz. — South Dakota scored three goals in the second half to secure a 3-1 win against Grand Canyon University on Friday at GCU Soccer Field in Phoenix. Grand Canyon goalkeeper, Blakely Fraasch, had four saves in the first half to keep the Coyotes off the board. Then in the 67th minute, the Lopes (0-3-1) broke the scoreless tie when Sirena Sey-mour took a long shot off a pass from teammate Shannon Costello

The Lopes did not hold the lead for long, as Coyote Taylor Nivala answered twice within four minutes. Nivala's first goal came in the 69th minute and was assisted by Lauren Bennett. Nivala took the ball off Bennett's pass from the left side and drove the ball over the goalkeeper. Two minutes later. Nivala stole the ball from a defender and took a shot from the right side to take the lead. She now has four goals for the season.

Colleen Reeves had the final goal of the night in the 85th minute. After Megan Anderson's shot bounced off the keeper's save, Reeves followed with a rebound shot into the net.

Zenner Earns MVFC Honors

ST. LOUIS - South Dakota State runner back Zach Zenner has been named Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Week after helping lead the Jackrabbits to a 44-18 victory over visiting Cal Poly Saturdav night.

A senior from Eagan, Minnesota, Zenner carried the ball 30 times for 193 yards and a touchdown in the Jackrabbits' home opener. Zenner also became the Missouri Valley Football Conference's career rushing leader in the game, upping his career total to 4,825, passing the previous record of 4,746 yards set by Western Illinois' Herb Donaldson from 2005-08.

Zenner topped the 100-yard mark for the 23rd time in his career in Saturday's game.

Decker Earns SDTA Honors

SIOUX FALLS — Matt Decker of Alcester won the men's championship of the South Dakota Triathlon Association's Triathlon Series, which concluded late last month

Decker earned $605 based on his finishes in eight triathlons held in the state this past year. This is the first vear that the SDTA, which was formed in 2013, has sponsored the series.

Brigitte Setness of Sioux Falls claimed women's top honors. Yankton's Luke Serck finished fourth in the men's 30-39 year-old division in the series, just missing the awards.
