Forces of the United States who were held as prisoners of war or remain missing in action," the governor said. "The state of South Dakota continues to support efforts to account for every service member classified as Missing in Action."

POW/MIA Recognition Day Friday

The governor encourages all South Dakotans to set aside time on Sept. 19 to honor the POW/MIAs who fought to protect our freedoms and lost theirs, as well as remember those engaged in today's struggle to guard our way of life for future generations.

"In their service to our country, former prisoners of war and those missing in action, have sacrificed mightily to maintain the promise of liberty that we hold dear," added Larry Zimmerman, Secretary of the South Dakota Department of Veterans Affairs. "Sept. 19 affords us a great opportunity to reaffirm our vow to never forget the courage of our nation's staunchest defenders our former POWs and MIAs."

75 YEARS AGO

Saturday, September 16, 1939

· After presenting evidence Thursday afternoon and all day yesterday, the state this morning rested in the case of the State of South Dakota against Floyd Munds, charged with embezzlement of funds while in the employ of Binder Brothers, local bottling and ice cream works and beer distributors. Munds went on the stand in his own behalf immediately afterward.

A much heavier Buck eleven pounded away for nearly three quarters at a stubborn but alert Springfield high school football team before the Trojans finally yielded, allowing Yankton to crash through for three touchdowns and a 20 to 0 victory in front of a large crowd of parents and other spectators who swarmed on Crane field for Yankton's 1939 football inaugural here last night.

50 YEARS AGO

Wednesday, September 16, 1964 The matter of what to do about making Yankton's Senior High School fit its overflow of students is once again being brought to the attention of voters in the Yankton Independent School District.

South Dakota farmers and gardeners had word today they liked from the weather bureau. It was that there probably will be no more frost in the state as least through the coming weekend.

25 YEARS AGO

Saturday, September 16, 1989 Wonderful. That's the word tourism industry officials use to describe the 1989 tourist season. The Labor Day weekend was "fantastic' in the Black Hills, according to Bill Honerkamp, president of the Black Hills, Badlands and Lakes Association.

 Farlier this week Coach Max Hawk had prescribed a formula for a Bucks win against Mitchell: "If this is a low-scoring game we will win, but if it becomes an offensive show, it's going to be a tough night for the The Bucks followed the Bucks." prescription to perfection, shutting out the high-powered Kernel of fense for a 10-0 ESD win.
