Helping Veterans

SCHOLARSHIPS

Connie Kerns-Dekens
Executive Director, College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
University of Nebraska-Lincoln

There are a number of college scholarships available at UNL. Students interested in applying for these scholarships should contact the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid at 402-472-9879 or www.unl.edu/sfa.

LGBT Rural Summit Series Set For Wayne

WYNG, Neb. — Wayne State University College of Business and the Wayne State University College of Business are hosting the LGBT Rural Summit Series designed to help businesses thrive in rural communities across the country.

The three summits are part of a larger national initiative, “The Futures of the LGBT Movement,” funded by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and the National LGBT Taskforce.

The summit series will take place in two locations: the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and the University of Wyoming.

The summits are designed to bring together LGBT business owners, rural policymakers, and rural communities to discuss how to address the unique challenges faced by LGBT rural businesses.

Developed by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, the summit series will be held in collaboration with the University of Wyoming and the Wyoming State University.

The summits will take place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the following dates:

June 27, 2014

July 25, 2014

August 29, 2014

The summits are open to the public and are free to attend. For more information, visit www.nebraska.edu/lgbtsummit.

LGBT Rural Summit Series Set For Wayne

WYNG, Neb. — Wayne State University College of Business and the Wayne State University College of Business are hosting the LGBT Rural Summit Series designed to help businesses thrive in rural communities across the country.

The three summits are part of a larger national initiative, “The Futures of the LGBT Movement,” funded by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and the National LGBT Taskforce.

The summit series will take place in two locations: the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and the University of Wyoming.

The summits are designed to bring together LGBT business owners, rural policymakers, and rural communities to discuss how to address the unique challenges faced by LGBT rural businesses.

Developed by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, the summit series will be held in collaboration with the University of Wyoming and the Wyoming State University.

The summits will take place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the following dates:

June 27, 2014

July 25, 2014

August 29, 2014

The summits are open to the public and are free to attend. For more information, visit www.nebraska.edu/lgbtsummit.

LGBT Rural Summit Series Set For Wayne

WYNG, Neb. — Wayne State University College of Business and the Wayne State University College of Business are hosting the LGBT Rural Summit Series designed to help businesses thrive in rural communities across the country.

The three summits are part of a larger national initiative, “The Futures of the LGBT Movement,” funded by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and the National LGBT Taskforce.

The summit series will take place in two locations: the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and the University of Wyoming.

The summits are designed to bring together LGBT business owners, rural policymakers, and rural communities to discuss how to address the unique challenges faced by LGBT rural businesses.

Developed by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, the summit series will be held in collaboration with the University of Wyoming and the Wyoming State University.

The summits will take place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the following dates:

June 27, 2014

July 25, 2014

August 29, 2014

The summits are open to the public and are free to attend. For more information, visit www.nebraska.edu/lgbtsummit.

LGBT Rural Summit Series Set For Wayne

WYNG, Neb. — Wayne State University College of Business and the Wayne State University College of Business are hosting the LGBT Rural Summit Series designed to help businesses thrive in rural communities across the country.

The three summits are part of a larger national initiative, “The Futures of the LGBT Movement,” funded by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and the National LGBT Taskforce.

The summit series will take place in two locations: the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and the University of Wyoming.

The summits are designed to bring together LGBT business owners, rural policymakers, and rural communities to discuss how to address the unique challenges faced by LGBT rural businesses.

Developed by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, the summit series will be held in collaboration with the University of Wyoming and the Wyoming State University.

The summits will take place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the following dates:

June 27, 2014

July 25, 2014

August 29, 2014

The summits are open to the public and are free to attend. For more information, visit www.nebraska.edu/lgbtsummit.

LGBT Rural Summit Series Set For Wayne

WYNG, Neb. — Wayne State University College of Business and the Wayne State University College of Business are hosting the LGBT Rural Summit Series designed to help businesses thrive in rural communities across the country.

The three summits are part of a larger national initiative, “The Futures of the LGBT Movement,” funded by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and the National LGBT Taskforce.

The summit series will take place in two locations: the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and the University of Wyoming.

The summits are designed to bring together LGBT business owners, rural policymakers, and rural communities to discuss how to address the unique challenges faced by LGBT rural businesses.

Developed by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, the summit series will be held in collaboration with the University of Wyoming and the Wyoming State University.

The summits will take place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the following dates:

June 27, 2014

July 25, 2014

August 29, 2014

The summits are open to the public and are free to attend. For more information, visit www.nebraska.edu/lgbtsummit.