Partners In Policy Deadline Sept. 20

PIERRE — Sept. 20 is the deadline for applications for Year 23 of South Dakota Partners in Policymaking. South Dakota Advocacy Services is asking for your assistance in recruiting and encouraging individuals with disabilities, parents, and family members to apply for this life changing opportunity. The leadership, empowerment, self-advocacy course is in its 23rd year in South Dakota and we proudly boast that we have 530 graduates of Partners throughout our great state.

Individuals may apply online at www.sdadvocacy.com. Click on the training button and then Partners in Policymaking and follow the links. Partner graduates are known throughout South Dakota by community leaders, legislators, schools, state & local agencies as people who make a difference. They are often sought for their advice and knowledge on disability related issues. Being a Partner graduate is indeed an honor. Partners is a leadership, empowerment, self-advocacy course in South Dakota, and nationwide, for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities, parents of young with children, and other family members. Participants learn best-practices in receiving services. Partners in South Dakota is funded in part by S.D. Council on Developmental Disabilities, South Dakota Parent Connection, Center for Disabilities at Sanford School of Medicine at USD and South Dakota Advocacy Services.

WALL ST. RECAP

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market rose Wednesday after the Federal Reserve told investors to expect low interest rates for a while yet, pushing the Dow Jones industrial average to a record high. The Fed statement put to rest an anxious waiting game among investors that has left the Standard & Poor's 500 index moving between small gains and losses for a week. Seven of the 10 industry groups of the S&P 500 ended up, led by materials stocks.

Yankton Dems to Kick Off Early Voting

With the start of early voting beginning on Friday morning, a group of Yankton County Democrats will be heading to the County Auditor's Office at 10:30 a.m. to cast their ballots. The County Auditor's Office is located in the Yankton County Court house on Broadway between Second and Third street in downtown Yankton. In an effort to publicize the start of early voting, Yankton Democrats plan to meet as a group and cast their ballots. By voting on Friday, Yankton Democrats hope to illustrate to all the voters that early voting is available. Citizens can register to vote and actually vote at the same time until Oct. 20. After that date, voters must already be registered in order to vote. All are welcome to join the Yankton County Democrats with the kickoff of voting season. We are excited to welcome those who come out and join us in this amazing event.

MMC Hosting 125th Celebration

Mount Marty College is honored to host the kickoff for the 125th Diocesan Celebration this Friday, Sept. 19. It will be a day full of joy as crowds gather to celebrate Bishop Martin Marty's and the Benedictine Sisters' courageous missionary and episcopal ministry in the Dakota Territory and the Catholic Diocese. The event is free and open to everyone. If you plan to attend there will be a free shuttle service from St Benedict's Catholic Church to Cimpr Arena. The shuttle service will start at 8:45am and run until the beginning of Mass at 10 a.m. It will start return trips at 12:30 p.m. and run until 2:15 p.m. Limited parking will be available on the campus of MMC. If you do try to park on campus, please park in the parking lots around Cimpr Arena. For more information, visit www.sfatholic.org/125thAnniversary/.

WANTED
A New Home For Buddy
Buddy is a bit of a timid little guy, but offer him a nice comfortable lap and he'll be your friend forever. This spaniel mix doesn't care much for toys or playing, so would love a nice quiet home where he can get lots of love and attention. Buddy gets along with dogs and cats. He would make a great companion to anyone.
