Devin Hester Sets NFL Record With 20th TD Return

ATLANTA (AP) — Devin Hester has set an NFL record with his 20th return for a touchdown, breaking the mark he shared with Deion Sanders. Hester returned a punt 56 yards for a touchdown midway through the second quarter to give the Atlanta Falcons a stunning 35-0 lead over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on Thursday night.

He took the punt at his own 44, found a seam up the middle, and zipped around the last man who had a shot at him, punter Michael Koenen. Hester high-stepped the last 20 yards or so, a hand behind his ear — the move that Sanders made famous during his Hall of Fame career.

Jeter Going Out His Way, To Sound Of Sinatra

NEW YORK (AP) - Derek Jeter is going out

his way. On the first day of the final regular-season homestand for the New York Yankees' captain, Gatorade began running a 90-second advertisement showing Jeter walking around the Bronx neighborhood outside Yankee Stadium. Shot in black and white, the ad is accompanied by Frank Sinatra's recording of "My Way."

Before the Yankees played Toronto on Thursday night, Jeter said he picked the music.

"I've always liked the song. I thought it was fitting," he said. "I'm happy we were able to use it."

The ad was created by TBWA(backslash)Chiat(backslash)Day. Jeter said it took about 30 minutes to record him interacting with surprised fans.

"It's sort of a way to thank them for what they meant to me." he said. "It was a fun experience."
