A Look Back On A Busy Summer Season In The Yankton Area

Summer Sights

P&D Photos By Kelly Hertz, Rob Nielsen, James D. Cimburek and Jeremy Hoeck

LEFT: This rider slogs across the muddy arena during the calf-roping event at the Irene Rodeo, held in late June. (Hoeck) ABOVE: High school soccer made its debut as a sanctioned sport in Yankton in August, when the Bucks and Gazelles played host to Huron. (Hertz)
