DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT
Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information, call the Yankton Police Department's animal control officer from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 661-9494, or 668-5210.

DAILY RECORD POLICY
The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian. It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO
Tuesday, September 3, 1940
• Labor Day yesterday was quietly observed in Yankton with most business suspended and a large number of local people out of the city for the weekend Monday. As far as what could be learned there were no accidents. At least none was reported to the office of Sheriff Maurice Lee or to police headquarters.
• There were 52 more students registered in Yankton high school when the public schools opened this morning than there were at the end of the first week last year.

50 YEARS AGO
Friday, September 3, 1965
• Gerald W. Huber, 22, Sunnyvale, CA, was in "good" condition at Sacred Heart hospital today after being injured in a one car accident Wednesday night on state highway 46 at the James river bridge, about two miles west of U.S. highway 81.
• The charge which is frequently leveled against Democrats was made against Republican Governor Nils Boe by Democratic state chairman J.C. Noon in Yankton yesterday afternoon.
