AAA's "Topsy Tow" Working Over Labor Day

SIOUX FALLS – AAA South Dakota will be working hard to make it a safer Labor Day holiday for everyone this year. The auto club's "Topsy Tow" services will be available to motorists who feel unsafe behind the wheel after drinking at parties or bars over the long weekend. The program is offered free to AAA members and non-members alike.

"We know that one in three fatal car crashes over holiday periods involve alcohol," said Marilyn Buskohl, spokeswoman for AAA South Dakota. "AAA sincerely hopes South Dakotans will decide to not take their chances and drive while impaired – to not roll the dice – and will call us instead."

Topsy Tow is available from 6 p.m. this Friday, Sept. 4 until 4 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 8 in Sioux Falls, Rapid City, Mitchell and Yankton.

AAA will safely transport the driver, the vehicle and up to one more person home within a 15-mile radius from point of pickup, no questions asked.

To request a free Topsy Tow, call (800) AAA-HELP and tell the dispatcher, "I need a Topsy Tow." AAA doesn't care if the caller is at a residential party, a bar or a restaurant, the auto club will dispatch a truck to get the motorist and the vehicle home safely.

Dave Says

No Need For Professionals

BY DAVE RAMSEY

Dear Dave,
My wife and I moved to Washington, D.C., about a year ago, and we'd like to put our old place in North Carolina that we've been renting on the market. We'll be asking around $140,000 for it, so do you think we should consider professionally staging the home?
—Ben

Dear Ben,
It would make a lot of sense if you were talking about a million-dollar house, but with a less expensive home like that I'd just make sure it's really clean and neat and nice — especially the front area with the sidewalk and bushes. We're talking curb appeal here. Make sure the front door, trim and porch area are all cleaned or painted, too. All this is like a first impression on a job interview.

There shouldn't be any bad smells in the house, and everything inside should be crisp and clean as well. You can stage it yourself with a few pieces of nice furniture and such, if you have it available. And try this old realtor's trick to make things a bit more homey: Put few drops of vanilla extract on an

Dave
RAMSEY

Dear Dave,
I've heard you talk about extreme spenders and extreme savers. Exactly what do these terms mean?
—Marianne

Dear Marianne,
Some people have a tendency to live in the moment, while others think more about the future. Financially speaking, those who live in the moment tend to be spenders, while the other type tends to be savers. When you take these kinds of behaviors to unhealthy extents, you have extreme spenders or extreme savers. Either one can be an eye of the stove while it's heated. It will make the whole house smell like you've been baking cookies.

But no, I wouldn't pay to stage a $140,000 house.
—Dave

GOING TO EXTREMES IS UNHEALTHY

unhealthy thing.

Extreme spenders may need to slow down, grow up and learn the value of money by living on a budget, setting savings goals and working to meet these goals. Extreme savers often operate out of fear and uncertainty. In some cases, they may have an even worse spirit in their lives — greed. They have to learn that it's okay to have a little fun spending and to give generously.

When it comes down to it, there are only three uses for money: spending, saving and giving. You have to do some of all three in order to have a truly happy and healthy life!

SCHOLARSHIPS

ELKS SCHOLARSHIPS

Yankton area high school seniors who plan to further their education after graduation should be aware that Elks National Foundation scholarship applications are now available at www.elks.org/enf/scholars.

Steve Pietila, exalted ruler of Yankton Elks Lodge, explains that this year $3.74 million in college and vocational education scholarships will be awarded through three scholarship programs made available through the Elks National Foundation. Only the federal government provides more money for college and vocational educational scholarships than does the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

These three levels include:

- Most Valuable Student scholarships – for high school seniors who are U. S. citizens; deadline for applications is Dec. 4 at the Elks lodge nearest the applicant's home. Yankton Elks Lodge is located at 504 West 27th St., Yankton.

Twenty top Most Valuable Students will each receive $20,000 plus scholarship awards they had earlier received as result of judging at the local and state level.

- Legacy Awards – for children and grandchildren of dues-paying Elks, deadline for applications is Jan. 29, 2016; and

- Emergency Educational Grants – for children of deceased or totally disabled Elks in the form of renewable, one-year grants of up to $4,000 a year. Deadline for these applications is Oct. 31, 2015.

Seniors should also be aware of FastWeb.com a searchable database of millions of scholarships worth billions of dollars. And FinAid.org is an award-winning site including a comprehensive data base of scholarships, advice and tools.

Scholarships.com is a website that allows visitors to browse through 2.7 million free scholarships and grants worth more than $19 million.

Each year Yankton Elks Lodge selects six scholarship winners, three men and three women, from among local applications submitted to the local lodge from throughout the Yankton area. These winners each receive $300. Their applications are then submitted to the South Dakota Elks Association scholarship committee for further review for possible state and national scholarship awards.

Last year a student from Verdigré, Nebraska, was selected a local winner and subsequently earned a $4,000 scholarship from the Elks National Foundation as a result of the state judging process.

Funds for the scholarships are provided through the Elks National Foundation, the philanthropic arm of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. Members of the Elks donate to the foundation which never spends the donations but rather invests all donated funds and only the interest earned on the endowment is used to fund activities including scholarships, Hoop Shoot contests for boys and girls 8-13 years of age (360,072 participants in 2015) and Veterans Service projects among others.

BRIAN MEYER SCHOLARSHIPS

PIERRE — The South Dakota Telecommunications Association (SDTA) is now accepting applications for the Brian Meyer Memorial Scholarship. Two scholarships in the amounts of $1,250 and $500 will be awarded for the 2016 spring semester.

The scholarship can be used at any post-secondary educational institution in South Dakota including public and private universities as well as technical schools.

Applicants must complete an application, write a short outline of their career plans following completion of their post-secondary education, and submit a brief essay on the future of small town South Dakota and what can be done to enhance the quality of life in rural areas through the use of technology.
