Boys & Girls State And Good Deed Award

Today (Wednesday) at 6 p.m., the American Legion Family from Spearfish Post 164 is hosting the annual Girls and Boys State picnic under the larger shelter in the Spearfish City Park. These selected delegates now seniors in high school, participated in a week-long program learning on character and civics and will be recognized that evening. They will share their experiences with the audience. During the event, a special award will be given to one of our local juniors. Aimee Tschetter, 8, will receive the National Good Deed Award from the American Legion Auxiliary. Aimee had her heart set to make a difference. Since October 2013, she traded her birthday presents to start a project to help children without shoes. Her project originated from a documentary on poverty in Africa. After visiting with her church, she found out that poverty is in many communities in South Dakota. She delivered shoes locally and on the Native American Reservation schools in Wounded Knee. She is continuing her project this year and hope to make connections to deliver shoes to more people. All attendees are invited to bring a pair of shoes to pass on the good deed. A meal and cake will be served free of charge.
