RWDD Board Awards Grants At Meeting

HURON — Chairman Randy Stanley of Groton has announced that the James River Water Development District awarded $284,636.25 in cost-sharing assistance at their recent Board of Directors meeting held in Aberdeen on Thursday, Sept. 10.

- The District awarded Cottonwood Lake Association $50,000 for shoreline stabilization in Spink County. The goal of this project is to enhance water-based recreation, protect water quality and promote fish habitat. These funds will be matched by Cottonwood Lake Homeowners.
- The District awarded $2,000 to Ducks Unlimited for wetland restoration along Firesteel Creek in Aurora County. The goal of this project is to improve water quality and reduce flooding potential to downstream inhabitants and to improve wildlife benefits.
- The District awarded cost-share assistance up to a maximum of $45,311.57, not to exceed 75 percent of the total project costs, to build a dam in Beulah Township in Hanson County. These dams are designed to slow down the drainage and to enhance pastures and wildlife.
- The District awarded cost-share assistance up to a maximum of $50,000, not to exceed 25 percent of the total project costs, to build a dam in Utica Township in Yankton County. This dam is designed to control runoff.
- The District awarded cost-share assistance up to a maximum of $7,285.27, not to exceed 75 percent of the total project costs, to repair a dam in Waverly Township in Marshall County. This dam is designed to control runoff and erosion.
- The District awarded cost-share assistance up to a maximum of $10,950, not to exceed 75 percent of the total project costs, to repair two dams in Perry Township in Davison County.
- The District awarded an additional $119,089.41 to Brown County to replace the existing floodgate structure where Crow Creek flows into the James River. The structure is in poor shape with only two of the four floodgates functioning properly. The existing floodgate was constructed approximately in 1911 and due to the age of the structure, replacement parts are not available.

In other business, the Board approved their 2016 operations budget in the amount of $965,593. Prior to the budget being approved, the District held their public hearing for the 2016 operations budget. No written or public comments were received in regards to the 2016 operations budget. For the fifth year in a row, the District will not increase its tax request. The District will ask for $958,893 in property taxes, the same level as in 2012, 2013, 2014 and

The board also received an update from Galen Hoogestraat from USGS on their findings during their assessment of climatic effects on streamflow characteristics in eastern South Dakota. Steve Donovan from Ducks Unlimited gave a presentation regarding three potential new programs.

For further information, contact the James River Water Development District office in Huron at 352-0600 or visit the website at www.jrwdd.com.

A young Yankton woman will soon realize her dream to serve a church mission as she heads to Brazil in October.

Melissa Gonsalez, 20, a 2013 Cum Laude graduate of Yankton High School and a Marriott School of Business student at Brigham Young University, has been called to serve in the Brazil, Vitoria Mission of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day

Gonsalez will enter the Missionary Training Center in São Paulo, Brazil, on October 7. There she will study Portuguese for 6 weeks before heading to Vitorio.

"It's important to focus on what matters most," said Gonsalez. "I want to help people come unto Christ-to know what Jesus Christ can do for them, and to help them get back to Him."

Gonsalez, who is already

Gonsalez

English and Spanish, is excited to learn Portuguese, and has begun studying the language on You Tube.

"I had my first conversation with someone from Portugal who came to JC Penney," said Gonsalez, who is a clerk there. "I've learned enough to be able to get around and introduce myself.' Gonsalez will serve with other sister missionaries for 18 months in Brazil, where she will share the gospel of Jesus Christ each day and perform community service whenever she can. When she returns to the United States she will go back to school as a junior.

"I know this will be a difficult, humbling experience," said Gonsalez, who has worked hard to prepare herself mentally and physically for the hardships she will encounter. "Brazil is a developing country, and I will have challenges with heat, humidity, mold, allergies and so on.'

She is a Seminary graduate who is well versed in the principles of the gospel. She feels well prepared to teach, and believes that her upbringing and her experience with various roommates at school will give her the additional skills she needs to cope with new foods and living conditions in Brazil, where she will be completely immersed in the language and culture.

Gonsalez will be supported on her mission by her family and the members of the Yankton Branch of the

MEETINGS

YANKTON TOWN AND COUNTRY GARDEN CLUB

The meeting was called to order by President Terre Berkland at 1:30 p.m. Friday, September 11, 2015 at the Yankton Community Library. No minutes read as the Secretary was absent with regrets. The treasurer gave an up-date of expenses.

Old business included: discussion of the Garden Show and the beautiful entries and the excellent coverage by Brenda Johnson with the P & D. An observation was the flowers would have looked more inviting and gotten more attention if published in color. Participation of the community at large, master gardeners, garden club members and viewers from the area make this event so successful. The tour of the Arboretum in Freeman in August was discussed and how lovely a place for events and walks. The CHANGE OF DATE for October was discussed and a reminder for all: October 23 is the date for Garden Club. We will meet at the Monastery at 1:30. Sr. Eileen will meet us and we will proceed to the Patio. The program is two parts: Lois Quartier will show and discuss her oil painting works. The second is a tour of the Bede Hall and the striking work by Fr. Thomas. Desserts and beverages will be catered. A thank you note from Gay was read. Prayers for her family continue.

New business discussed was the meetings for November and December. Each will be held on the second Friday of the month. November will be a potluck at Betts' home. December will be a Christmas party. The location will be discussed at the November potluck with information disseminated immediately. The shrubs and trees need to be trimmed and pruned at the Capitol. Connie offered to call the city parks to have that slated for completion. Reminding everyone a new slate of officers will need to be submitted at the November meeting to be voted upon at the December. A new member brought four oriental lilies to be planted near the black-eyed susan at the Capitol. Ideas, speakers and trips for 2016 will be presented in November.

The meeting was adjourned so the group could tour the barn quilts displayed by the Dakota Prairie Quilters Guild of Yankton. Refreshments and beverages provided by the hostess, Linda Richards.
