USD Wraps Up Play In Minnesota

Ellie Burns both won three matches in the top singles flight at Minnesota's Gopher Invitational held Friday through Sunday at the Baseline Tennis Center. The tournament consisted of 12 teams, including Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa State and Air Force. It featured three singles flights and each day held different doubles draws.

Thirty-one players competed in the top flight. Sidenko and Burns both won twice in the consolation bracket following opening-round losses. Sidenko went on to beat North Dăkota's Lacey Sprinkel 8-5 in the 19th-place match Sunday. Burns downed North Dakota's Faith Lee 8-4 in the 21st-place Coyote junior Emma Kranendonk, senior Milica Pavlovich and freshman Elise van Zijst competing in the 32-person B Flight for singles. Kranendock earned a pair of straight-set wins before finishing in 14th place. Pavlovich won a 10-2 su per breaker against Drake's Summer Brills and downed North Dakota's Mimi Yunker in straight sets en route to a 20th-place finish. van Zijst also won twice and placed 23rd.

Sophomore Hannah Wich competed in the C Flight Tournament. She beat Green Bay's Noel Peck 6-0, 6-0 in an opening match and lost to Wisconsin's Nathalie Joanlanne before an injury took her out of the tournament.

Pavlovic and Kranendonk combined for two of South Dakota's four doubles victories during the weekend. The duo defeated Joanlanne and Badger teammate Sydney Rider 6-4, and also downed Milwaukee's Laurie Clark and Dana Pavlovic and Kranendonk improved to 6-4 in doubles play through two fall tournaments. van Zijst is 7-3 in singles play through two events. Burns, Kranendonk and Sidenko each have five singles victories each. South Dakota is back in action Friday through Sunday at the Creighton Invitational in Omaha, Neb.

scored nine of the team's 25 goals, while junior Gabe Wenzlaff has added six goals and senior Chase Huber has scored four times.

In goal, the Bucks have gotten solid production out of sophomore Trevor Rafferty (four shutouts), while Slate has recorded 11 defensive saves from his position.

"I think we've changed, not only in personnel, but our formation has changed," Slate said. "We're playing a lot cleaner, so hopefully that shows (today).'

Milone Starts For III Hughes, Pitches Twins

Past Indians 4-2
CLEVELAND (AP) — Emergency starter
Tommy Milone replaced an ill Phil Hughes and pitched the Minnesota Twins past the Cleveland Índians 4-2 on Monday night in a game crucial to the wild-card chances of both clubs.

Hughes, one of several Twins players hit with a virus that has spread throughout the team, was scratched from his scheduled start about 4 hours before the game. Milone (9-5), removed from the rotation two weeks ago, stepped in an allowed two runs in 5 2-3 innings.

Minnesota (81-75) began the day trailing Houston by 1 1/2 games in the race for the second AL wild card. The Astros played later in

The Twins entered a half-game game behind the Los Angeles Angels, who hosted Oakland in a late game.

Cleveland (77-78) was four games behind the Astros before its costly defeat. Milone took control after giving up a solo homer to Francisco Lindor in the first inning, retiring 10 in a row during one stretch. Trevor Plouffe, who missed Sunday's game because of the virus, hit a two-run homer in the Milone was sent to the bullpen following two rocky outings in which he allowed 12 runs over five innings. The left-hander is 3-1 with a 2.16

ERA in six career starts against Cleveland. Kluber, last season's AL Cy Young Award winner, allowed four runs in six innings and lost to Minnesota for the second time in a week. The right-hander, who missed two weeks with a hamstring injury this month, hasn't won since the Gazelles. "We had to build up some chemistry because of the wide range of ages we have on the team," Schuring said. "They had to know where players are going to be, and work on the touch."

And for some of those newcomers to varsity (or
